

I would like to say thank you to family support because they answered a Christmas wish for us. My husband and I have been wanting to take the kids on the Santa train for a few years but can't afford it. When I received the letter last week it brought tears to my eyes. I am so excited we can share the experience with our kids this year.

Have a good day,

Amanda